

Finding New Life for our Heritage Assets

Tuesday 11th February 2020, Kellogg College, Oxford

PROGRAMME

- 9.30am Tea and coffee on arrival
- 9.45am Welcome, Louise Thomas, HTVF Director
- 10am Introduction to the Challenges and Opportunities, Matthew Mckeague, Chief Executive, The Architectural Heritage Fund (AHF)
- 10.30am The Role of Professionals and Communities in Finding New Uses for Historic Places, Anthony Downs, Estate Director, Gascoyne Estates
- 11am Q&A followed by tea and coffee
- 11.30am Finding Viable New Uses, David Geddes, Destination Consulting, Colliers International
- 12pm Saving a Building: Bridport Literature and Science Institute, Trevor Ware, Chair, Bridport Area Development Trust
- 12.30 Q&A
- 1pm Lunch
- 2pm What Makes for a Viable New Use, Alastair Dick-Cleland, Project Development Manager, The Landmark Trust
- 2.30pm Introduction to Workshop: Making a local landmark viable again, Louise Thomas, HTVF
- 3.30pm Tea and coffee
- 4pm Saving a Building: The Old School, Wolverton, Marie Osborne, Chair, Future Wolverton
- 4.30pm Creating a Legacy of Preservation: Devizes Assize Court, Colin Johns, Devizes Assize Court Trust
- 5pm Discussion and Close