

Neighbourhood Planning Review: What it's achieving and how

Tuesday 26th February 2019, Kellogg College, Oxford

- 9.30am Tea and coffee on arrival
- 9.45am Welcome, Louise Thomas, HTVF Director
- 10am Neighbourhood Planning Review, John Wilkinson, Locality
- 10.30am Learning from a 'front-runner' Neighbourhood Plan, Dr Geoff Botting,
Woodcote Parish Council
- 11am Q&A followed by tea and coffee
- 11.30am The Challenges for Neighbourhood Plans: External Pressures, Andy Yuille, Lancaster University and planning consultant
- 12pm Lessons from supporting communities and examining Neighbourhood Plans, Liz
Beth, Neighbourhood Planning Consultant and Examiner
- 12.30 Q&A
- 1pm Lunch
- 1.45pm How examiners work and pioneering policies in Submission Draft
Neighbourhood Plans, Jill Kingaby, Intelligent Plans
- 2.15pm Innovative Neighbourhood Planning approaches and policies, Gary Kirk, Your Locale
- 2.45pm Tea and coffee
- 3pm Effective Policies for the Historic Environment, Rob Lloyd Sweet, Historic England
- 3.30pm Neighbourhood Planning with communities, Jon Herbert, Troy Planning + Design
- 4pm Case studies from Lincolnshire, Ian Read, University of York
- 4.15pm Preparing a Community-led Visual Impact Assessment & other evidence and guidance, Louise Thomas, TDRC Ltd
- 4.30pm Discussion & Close